Pastor's Epistle

Happy New Year to my Friends in Christ!

With the chapter of 2015 now finished and given to God, we face 2016 with excited anticipation, maybe some trepidation, and many questions: What will happen this year? How will I get along with my family and friends and neighbors? How will I survive this election year? Who will be our new president? What will happen around the globe and how will all of this affect me? What are my hopes and fears as this new year looms before me?

As I was pondering these questions, I was reminded of a hymn which brought a "God moment" perspective to these questions. "It Is Well With My Soul" was written in 1873 by Horatio G. Spafford and is based on 2 Kings 4.26 and Psalm 146.1. I suggest you read the whole story, 2 Kings 4.11-37, and, together with Psalm 146.1, you shall have a deeper appreciation for this lovely hymn:

*When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain:

It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

*Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

*My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!—
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

*For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

*But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,
The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh, trump of the angel! Oh, voice of the Lord!
Blessed hope, blessed rest of my soul!

*And Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

Our Mission Statement

*Called by Christ to love
God & neighbor
through deepening prayer,
broadening fellowship,
and expanding worship.

"In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loves us so much, we also ought to love one another."

1 John 4:10-11

Here is the story behind the hymn: (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/It\_Is\_Well\_with\_My\_Soul)

“This hymn was written after traumatic events in Spafford's life. The first was the 1871 Great Chicago Fire, which ruined him financially (he had been a successful lawyer and had invested significantly in property in the fire area). His business interests were further hit by the economic downturn of 1873, at which time he had planned to travel to Europe with his family on the SS Ville du Havre. In a late change of plan, he sent the family ahead while he was delayed on business. While crossing the Atlantic, the ship sank rapidly after a collision with a sea vessel, the Loch Earn, and all four of Spafford's daughters died. His wife Anna survived and sent him the now famous telegram, "Saved alone ...". Shortly afterwards, as Spafford traveled to meet his grieving wife, he was inspired to write these words as his ship passed near where his daughters had died.<sup>[3]</sup>”

As one year closes and another year opens before you, may you begin each day by saying, “It is well, it is well with my soul.” Walking with you along the WAY – Pr. Nancy

WELCA Bible Study
January 13 at 11:00 am

Jan – April in the winter of 2015–16, our four-session Bible study is an exploration of the book of Philippians, written by E. Louise Williams and the Rev. Phyllis N. Kersten. “Philippians is a wonderful book,” the authors write. “Paul had founded the Christian church in Philippi a number of years before and now writes to encourage them. Even though he is imprisoned, Paul does not seem downcast or discouraged. On the contrary, he thinks his suffering might have positive results for the gospel’s continued extension in the world.”

WELCA

WELCA Meeting: Thurs., Jan. 28 at 7:00 pm. We will be setting our budget for 2016 and deciding which missions to support with our soup and candy donations. Come and join us for fun and fellowship. Our hostess is Anita Simmons.

WELCA Bible Study: Weds. Jan. 13 at 11:00 am
(See more info on pg 3)

Thank you to everyone who helped with the Chocolates/Candy and Bake Sale at our Soup event. Sales were $427.00.

Soup Lunch and Supper was a great success this year. Free will offering was $480.00 for lunch and $487.00 for supper. Thank you to everyone who helped by donating food items, cooking the soups, cornbread & desserts, serving the food, waiting on people and cleaning up. Without your participation we could not have this event. We will decide what missions we will be sending our fund to at the January meeting. Start thinking of where we can help others with these funds.

On December 13th we welcomed into the family of God Whitney Mae Thomas, daughter of Michael & Amanda Thomas, Sister to Brody & Blair. To help guide Whitney are her sponsors Tim & Brenda Butler and Jeff & Jody Butler.
