Pastor's Epistle

Dear Friends in Christ,

Grace and peace from God our Father and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Fall is my favorite season. The cooler temps, the shorter days, the smells of ripening corn, the colors of mums and leaves – it all puts me in a contemplative mood. Even though my calendar is busier than ever, I find myself taking time to breathe deeply and consider the blessed life I am living.

Maybe it is because I am, "maturing" like the fall apples, but I find each day is a time for life reflection. Even though I am busy, part of my brain seems alive in a state of contemplative pause; giving thanks for the people I meet, the town I live in, my colleagues I work with and most of all, the people of St. Paul's. I find myself to be more "awake", more consciously alive.

I am surrounded by people who take their faith and the talents God gives them very seriously; they struggle to make priorities according to God's purpose for them – and they try to live in ways that convey God's Spirit of love and sacrificial giving in the large and small ways of daily life. Individually, our words, actions, and decisions may not matter much in the larger scheme of life and time; but, cumulatively, they matter greatly.

Unlike George Bailey in the movie, "It's a Wonderful Life" we cannot know the impact individual Christians have on others, locally or globally. We are not God – we do not have the luxury of omniscience. We don't have to – God is omniscient and we can have faith in this loving God to have our best interests at heart, even if we don't see the whole picture. So we can go to bed each night, asking for and receiving God's forgiveness "for things done and things not done", words spoken and words we should NOT have said – knowing God's grace will forgive us and allow us to rise the next morning to serve again. God makes our ordinary lives extraordinary in ways we cannot possibly imagine.

Given one day-at-a-time, let us relax a bit and enjoy truly being alive in Christ Jesus. Take in the air we breathe, the sights and sounds, touch the hand of a person in need of friendship or comfort, and let gratitude and humility find daily expression in joy. Write your senator or congressperson, tell people you love them, appreciate them, notice their gifts, and tell everyone how grateful you are for their presence in your life. And listen, listen, and listen some more. They matter - you matter – long after we all are dead and gone – we will still matter to God. And for that, and for all of you – I give God thanks and praise.

Walking with you along the Way – Pr. Nancy

Up-coming Cool stuff:

The ELCA Church wide Bishop has asked for input from all the congregations regarding a document called, "The Use and Means of Grace: A Statement on the Practice of Word and Sacrament."

It is not a rule book, it is not a social statement. It is a small book which tries to encapsulate generally held practices of the ELCA around the use of Word and Sacrament – which primarily means who God is and how we encounter God through the Word and the sacraments.

In particular, Bishop Eaton is asking for comments around how folks in the congregations understand Holy Communion.

So I will offer this in an Adult Forum following our Bible Study on "Forgiveness".

I hope you will consider attending. Pr. N

Christian Ed Meeting:
Tuesday, October 14th at 8:30 am

Food for thought

Life left to God
Will bring a greater yield
Of golden harvest and of ripened field
Than all the weary plannings of thy soul
Can force to be, or strength of will control;
Oh, trust a Power that must bring good from all,
And leave thy life to God!

WELCA Bible Study:

Join us for our New fall Bible Study on Thursday the Oct. 9th at 11:00 am.

Transforming Life and Faith

A new marriage, a new child, a new job, a new home: most of us recognize how our lives are changed by these experiences. In Transforming Life and Faith, we will consider how our lives and our faith journeys are transformed by the events we experience and the people we meet. In both the Old Testament and New Testament, and especially in Acts of the Apostles, we will read about people who have life-changing experiences: Paul on the road to Damascus, Moses in the wilderness of Midian, Lydia praying by a river in Macedonia, an Ethiopian man traveling from Jerusalem to Gaza. We will watch them turn to and with God as their minds, hearts, and daily lives are altered. And we will reflect on the ways we, too, have been and will be transformed and called by God to serve God's mission in the world.

Reformation Day this year will be celebrated on October 26th. We encourage everyone to wear red that Sunday.

October 31st is the anniversary of Luther's posting his Ninety-five Theses for debate concerning the sale of indulgence. In the tradition of St. Augustine before him, Luther's intent was to spur debate for the purpose of bringing the church back to its true roots – scripture, faith, and grace. This is the only date on the church year calendar that is unique to Lutherans.

Mid-Week Evening Worship : Every Wednesday, at 6:30 pm.

This is a great opportunity for families that have hectic weekend schedules to come and worship together.

Note: in the Book of Concord, in a discussion of the Large Catechism regarding when to worship: "But this, I say, is not restricted, as it was among the Jews, to a particular time so that it must be precisely this day or that, for in itself no one day is better than another. Actually, worship ought to take place daily. However, because this is more that the common people can do, at least one day a week ought to be set apart for it.

At whatever time God's Word is taught, preached, heard, read, or pondered, there the person, the day and the work is hallowed, not on account of the eternal work but on account of the Word that makes us all saints."

The 2014 Hospice Fall Festival “Be Prepared” is coming Thursday, October 23rd, beginning at 5:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall at First Christian Church in Albia. A free meal will be provided. This event will make a difference in your lives and the lives of loved ones left behind after your death.

This is not a “gloom and doom” festival, but a gathering of people who want to retain as much control as possible over decisions to be made about their medical care in case they are incapacitated, or in case of their death. Such decisions make it easier for their children or spouses to cope with making choices during extremely emotional times of distress.

How many of us have had to plan a funeral for a loved one who died unexpectedly and found the process extremely difficult because you have no idea what the deceased wanted? How many of us have had to make medical decisions for a loved one who is incapable of making their own decisions due to illness, accident, or other cause - and you have no guidance from the loved one regarding their wishes?

These questions and others are going to be discussed at this seminar with the guidance of a few local leaders who have expertise in these areas:

Steve Goodlow will facilitate a discussion around legal issues that may arise when planning funerals, making medical and/or financial decisions as medical or financial power-of-attorney, Living wills, Advanced Directives, etc. Bob Sinnott will discuss pre-planning your funeral.

Since the meal is catered, an RSVP is much appreciated to 641-932-1701 or email: mbriggs@mchalbia.com.

Now is the time, while we have our physical and mental faculties, to have these conversations and make these plans. Come join us and you will find that this is a safe and comfortable place in which to ask your questions.
